Arts in Aging Calendar

Baylor College of Medicine

We salute the "Arts in Aging" as a complement to a good life long lived. In this 18th edition, we again feature the works of artists ranging in age from boomers to 97. The scenes and people they painted depict life in Europe, the Americas, and the Far East, but also the scenes of life for the elderly in the United States. The calendar is an eclectic look at the wonderful differences in people worldwide. Goethe correctly said that "Science and Art belong to the whole World and the barriers of nationality vanish before them." Born in the first half of the last century, these artists remind us daily that older people make important contributions to the quality of our lives. Their creativity is timeless and the beauty their eyes saw, we see in these wonderful works.
We salute the “Arts in Aging” as a complement to a good life long lived. In this 18th edition, we again feature the works of artists ranging in age from boomers to 97. The scenes and people they painted depict life in Europe, the Americas, and the Far East. The calendar reflects the eclectic look of the world, and demonstrates that “Science and Art belong to the whole World and the barriers of nationality vanish before them.” Born in the first half of the last century, these artists remind us daily that older people make important contributions to the quality of our lives. Their creativity is timeless and the beauty their eyes saw, we see in these wonderful works.