Arts in Aging Calendar
Huffington Center on Aging

We salute the "Arts in Aging" as a complement to a good life long lived. In this 19th edition, we again feature the works of artists ranging in age from a new septuagenarian to a 97-year-old. The scenes and people they painted depict life in Europe, the Americas, and the Far East; the eclectic look of the calendar is indicative of the wonderful differences in people worldwide. Goethe correctly said that "Science and Art belong to the whole World and the barriers of nationality vanish before them." Born in the first half of the last century, these artists remind us daily that older people make important contributions to the quality of our lives. Their creativity is timeless and the beauty their eyes saw, we see in these wonderful works.

2014

January

February

March

April

May

June
We salute the “Arts in Aging” as a complement to a good life long lived. In this 19th edition, we again feature the works of artists ranging in age from a new septuagenarian to a 97-year old. The scenes and people they painted depict life in Europe, the Americas and the Far East. The eclectic look of the calendar is indicative of the wonderful differences in people worldwide.

Goethe correctly said that “Science and Art belong to the whole World and the barriers of nationality vanish before them.” Born in the first half of the last century, these artists remind us daily that older people make important contributions to the quality of our lives. Their creativity is timeless and the beauty their eyes saw, we see in these wonderful works.

HUFFINGTON CENTER ON AGING