Global Child Health Residency Program Scholarly Activity

Published Manuscripts

Oral Presentations

4. Aiden A. “Clean lighting leads to improved respiratory health in rural Uganda: field study and a dirt-powered generator.” MIT Dept of Media Arts and Sciences, Boston, MA. 2015.

5. Aiden A. “Clean lighting leads to improved respiratory health in rural Uganda: field study and a dirt-powered generator.” Queenstown Research Week. 2015.

Poster Presentations

   Heather Lukolyo is one of the SUGAR Spin-Off Investigators

