Ruth Hutton Fred Lecture

April 3, 2019  Why People Die By Suicide

Thomas Joiner, Ph.D.
The Robert O. Lawton Distinguished Professor of Psychology
Florida State University
Tallahassee, Florida

Objectives: At the conclusion of this session, participants should be able to:
- Identify those most at risk for death by suicide based on three factors: feelings of being a burden on loved ones, feelings of isolation, and the learned ability to hurt oneself.
- Apply new methods of treatments for suicidal behavior and suicide prevention based on the new theory presented.
- Apply new approaches to suicide risk assessment.

NOTE: TODAY'S GRAND ROUNDS WILL BE HELD IN THE KLEIBERG AUDITORIUM AT MAIN BAYLOR

April 10, 2019  Drugs in Sport

Laurence M. Westreich, M.D.
Clinical Associate Professor
New York University School of Medicine

Objectives: At the conclusion of this session, participants should be able to:
- Distinguish between performance enhancing drugs and drugs of abuse.
- Diagnose misuse of anabolic androgenic steroids.
- Identify the ethical challenges of managing illnesses or injuries in athletes who require treatment with medicines that are prohibited substances (therapeutic use exceptions).

This activity has been designated by Baylor College of Medicine for 1 credit of education in medical ethics and/or professional responsibility.
April 17, 2019  Psychotherapy Supervision: A process within a process

Samuel Scott, M.D.
Chief Resident of Education, General Psychiatry Program
Menninger Department of Psychiatry
Baylor College of Medicine

James W. Lomax, M.D.
Karl Menninger Chair of Psychiatric Education
Menninger Department of Psychiatry
Baylor College of Medicine

Objectives: At the conclusion of this session, participants should be able to:
• Define parallel process as it pertains to psychotherapy supervision.
• Describe the dynamic process of change in supervisee’s in supervision.
• Identify one way to improve their use/practice of psychotherapy supervision.

April 24, 2019  For Colored Girls Who Have Considered Suicide When the Rainbow is Not Enfu

Sade Udoetuk, M.D.
Associate Director of Psychiatric Training
Assistant Professor
Menninger Department of Psychiatry
Baylor College of Medicine

Objectives: At the conclusion of this session, participants should be able to:
• Describe the role of social determinants of health across the lifespan of black women.
• Identify mental health disorders that disproportionately affect black and African American women and girls.
• Explain effective education, research, clinical care and community outreach solutions for improving health equity.

This activity has been designated by Baylor College of Medicine for 1 credit of education in medical ethics and/or professional responsibility.

NOTE: The Resident Teaching Award will be presented at today's Grand Rounds